

How comfortable are you with Python programming?

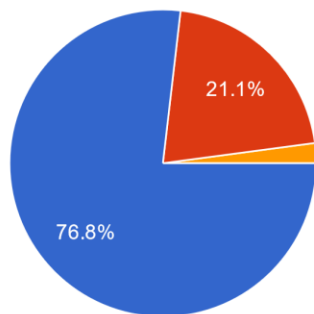

95 responses

- Not comfortable at all (I haven't learned Python yet)
- Somewhat comfortable (I can write basic Python code)
- Comfortable (I can write Python code for most tasks)
- Very comfortable (I'm an expert in Python)

Have you worked with Machine Learning models before?

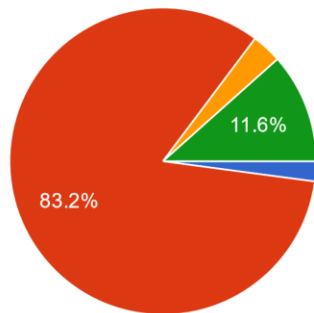

95 responses

- Novice: I'm just starting to learn about machine learning and haven't gotten my hands dirty with any models yet.
- Apprentice: I've got the basics down and have played around with simple models.
- Professional: I've built and trained my fair share of complex models.

Do you have access to a computer with enough processing power and memory to run Machine Learning models?

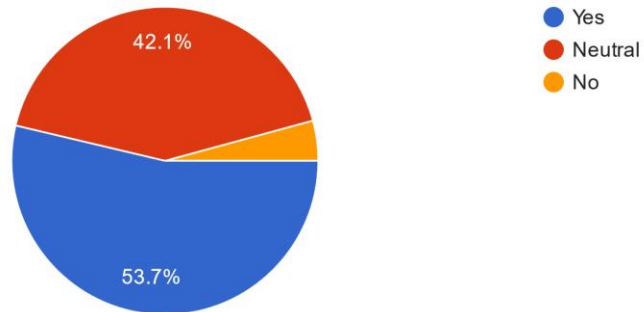

95 responses

- No, I don't have access to any suitable computer
- Yes, I have a personal computer that can run basic models
- Yes, I have access to a university computer lab with suitable resources
- Yes, I have access to cloud computing resources (e.g., AWS, Google Cloud)

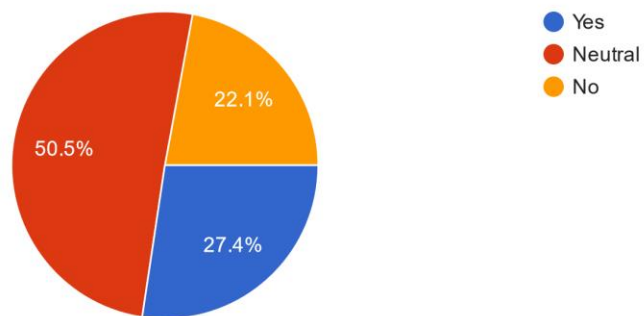

Do you enjoy courses which require a lot of programming?

95 responses

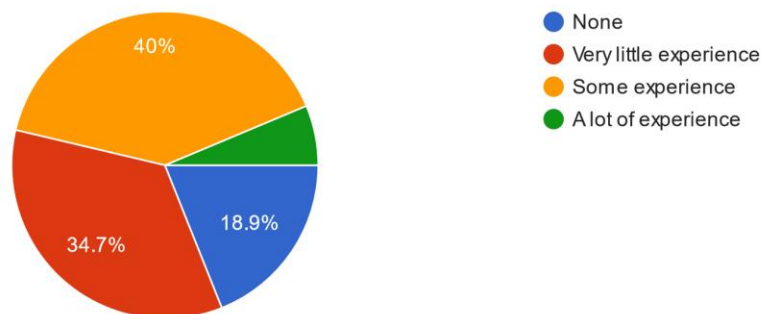

Do you like group projects?

95 responses

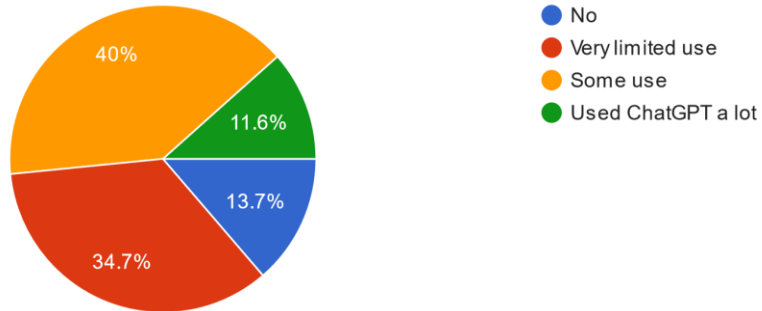

How much experience did you obtain in your previous UH in writing project reports?

95 responses

To which extent did you use ChatGPT—or similar tools—in courses you took recently to help you with course content and assignments?

95 responses

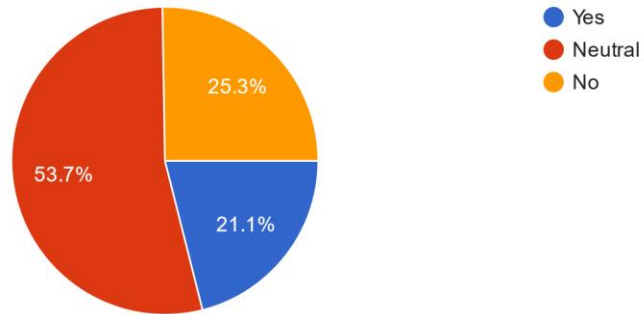

Did you take a Data Science Course Yet?

95 responses

Do you enjoy reading scientific papers?

95 responses

What will you most likely Do in Fall 2025?

95 responses

