

COURSE SYLLABUS

YEAR COURSE OFFERED: 2022
SEMESTER COURSE OFFERED: Spring
DEPARTMENT: Computer Science
COURSE NUMBER: COSC 3360/6310
NAME OF COURSE: Fundamentals of Operating Systems
NAME OF INSTRUCTOR: Albert M. K. Cheng

The information contained in this class syllabus is subject to change without notice. Students are expected to be aware of any additional course policies presented by the instructor during the course.

Learning Objectives

Introduction to operating system (OS) fundamentals including process, memory, and file management; scheduling; security; and real-time/embedded systems.

Major Assignments/Exams

Three in-class closed-book exams with webcam turned on (February, April, and last day of class, May 2, 2022). There will be 3 to 4 programming assignments (using C or C++, BSD-style Unix/Linux OS). The exams will count for 50% of your grade, each equally weighted; individual programming assignments will determine the remaining 50%. You must have a passing grade on both the exams as well as on the outside assignments in order to obtain a passing grade in the course. Assignments will be weighted according to their difficulty.

Required Reading

Operating Systems (updated 2021 version) by Dr. Albert Cheng, available from the campus copy center and bookstore in early January, 2022.

Recommended Reading

Operating Systems Concepts by A. Silberschatz, P. Galvin, and G. Gagne; 10th edition, Wiley.
Books on C or C++ programming and on BSD-style Unix or Linux systems.

List of discussion/lecture topics

This course introduces process/task/thread management, scheduling, deadlock-handling, memory management, file systems, networking, security issues, and embedded/real-time operating systems (RTOS). Lab assignments will introduce Unix/Linux system-level programming.

University of Houston – Policies and Guidelines

COVID-19 Information

Students are encouraged to visit the University's COVID-19 website for important information including on-campus testing, vaccines, diagnosis and symptom protocols, campus cleaning and safety practices, report forms, and positive cases on campus. Please check the website throughout the semester for updates.

Vaccinations

Data suggests that vaccination remains the best intervention for reliable protection against COVID-19. Students are asked to familiarize themselves with pertinent vaccine information, consult with their health care provider. The University strongly encourages all students, faculty and staff to be vaccinated.

Reasonable Academic Adjustments/Auxiliary Aids

The University of Houston complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, pertaining to the provision of reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids for disabled students. In accordance with Section 504 and ADA guidelines, UH strives to provide reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids to students who request and require them. If you believe that you have a disability requiring an academic adjustments/auxiliary aid, please contact the Justin Dart Jr. Student Accessibility Center (formerly the Justin Dart, Jr. Center for Students with DisABILITIES).

Excused Absence Policy

Regular class attendance, participation, and engagement in coursework are important contributors to student success. Absences may be excused as provided in the University of Houston Undergraduate Excused Absence Policy and Graduate Excused Absence Policy for reasons including: medical illness of student or close relative, death of a close family member, legal or government proceeding that a student is obligated to attend, recognized professional and educational activities where the student is presenting, and University-sponsored activity or athletic competition. Under these policies, students with excused absences will be provided with an opportunity to make up any quiz, exam or other work that contributes to the course grade or a satisfactory alternative. Please read the full policy for details regarding reasons for excused absences, the approval process, and extended absences. Additional policies address absences related to military service, religious holy days, pregnancy and related conditions, and disability.

Recording of Class

Students may not record all or part of class, livestream all or part of class, or make/distribute screen captures, without advanced written consent of the instructor. If you have or think you may have a disability such that you need to record class-related activities, please contact the Justin Dart, Jr. Student Accessibility Center. If you have an accommodation to record class-related activities, those recordings may not be shared with any other student, whether in this course or not, or with any other person or on any other platform. Classes may be recorded by the instructor. Students may use instructor's recordings for their own studying and notetaking. Instructor's recordings are not authorized to be shared with anyone without the prior written approval of the instructor. Failure to comply with requirements regarding recordings will result in a disciplinary referral to the Dean of Students Office and may result in disciplinary action.

Syllabus Changes

Due to the changing nature of the COVID-19 pandemic, please note that the instructor may need to make modifications to the course syllabus and may do so at any time. Notice of such changes will be announced as quickly as possible through (specify how students will be notified of changes).
